CAUSE

Greg Clark was ordered at sentencing to complete 100 hours of community service through Habitat for Humanity of Montgomery. He has been unable to do so as he claims he initially had a hard time getting someone from the organization to return his calls and then when work was available, he could not take off from his paying job. The probation officer respectfully requests that the offender be allowed to complete his community service requirement at other organizations in addition to anything that may be available at Habitat for Humanity in Montgomery.
